

‘SIX NEW BULLET TRAIN ROUTES’

NEW DELHI : The Indian Railways is planning to introduce six new routes for plying bullet trains, union minister for railways Piyush Goyal informed Parliament Friday. Railways is conducting Detailed Project Report (DPR) studies for six High Speed Rail (HSR) corridors of Delhi-Varanasi, Delhi-Ahmedabad, Mumbai-Nagpur, Mumbai-Hyderabad, Chennai-Mysore, and Delhi-Amritsar. The alignment for these corridors has yet not been finalized, as the DPR study is in progress, Goyal said.

SIX NEW BULLET TRAIN ROUTES TO BE INTRODUCED: RAILWAY MINISTER

NEW DELHI: The Indian Railways is planning to introduce six new routes for plying bullet trains, union minister for railways Piyush Goyal informed Parliament Friday. Railways is conducting Detailed Project Report (DPR) studies for six High Speed Rail (HSR) corridors of Delhi-Varanasi, Delhi-Ahmedabad, Mumbai-Nagpur, Mumbai-Hyderabad, Chennai-Mysore, and Delhi-Amritsar. The alignment for these corridors has yet not been finalized, as the DPR study is in progress, Goyal said. The Indian railways has also started tendering process to launch 44 more Vande Bharat Express, high speed trains, he said. During a debate on the demands for grants of the ministry, Goyal said the Centre is considering barring private vendors and agents from booking train tickets for passengers.

'SIX NEW BULLET TRAIN ROUTES'

NEW DELHI: The Indian Railways is planning to introduce six new routes for plying bullet trains, union minister for railways Piyush Goyal informed Parliament Friday. Railways is conducting Detailed Project Report (DPR) studies for six High Speed Rail (HSR) corridors of Delhi-Varanasi, Delhi-Ahmedabad, Mumbai-Nagpur, Mumbai-Hyderabad, Chennai-Mysore, and Delhi-Amritsar. The alignment for these corridors has yet not been finalized, as the DPR study is in progress, Goyal said.